

About Liberty

Liberty is one of the UK's leading civil liberties and human rights organisations. We work to promote human rights and protect civil liberties through a combination of test case litigation, lobbying, campaigning, research and advice work. Liberty is a membership organisation and we rely on the support of individuals and funding bodies to continue our work.

Voluntary Sector Advice Service

Helping you help others

Funded by

Voluntary Sector Advice Service

helping you help others

Access the service via the helpline:
0845 122 8621

Or advice request forms are available at:
www.yourrights.org.uk/VAS
and from our switchboard on 020 7403 3888

Submit forms online or send to
VAS - Liberty
21 Tabard Street
London SE1 4LA
Fax: 020 7407 5354

Rights protected by the Human Rights Act:

- The right to life
- The right to be free from torture, inhumane or degrading treatment
- The right not to do forced labour
- The right to liberty
- The right to a fair trial
- The right to no punishment without law
- The right to respect for private and family life, home and correspondence
- The right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion
- The right to freedom of expression
- The right to freedom of assembly and association
- The right to marry and found a family
- The right to freedom from discrimination
- The right to peaceful enjoyment of possessions
- The right to education
- The right to free elections

Liberty's free Voluntary Sector Advice Service provides high quality advice and information on human rights law to voluntary sector organisations in England and Wales.

We can help you help your clients and service users to enforce and protect their fundamental rights.

LIBERTY
PROTECTING CIVIL LIBERTIES
PROMOTING HUMAN RIGHTS